

SONG FOR MARTHA

Words and Music © Nicky Chiswell 2008

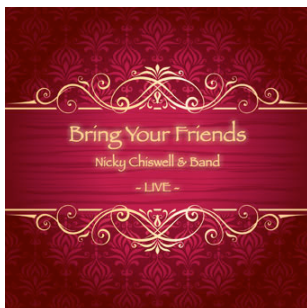

See Luke 10:29-42. Many songs on the rest of this album are inspired events in Luke's gospel. Check out the passages they are from.

Harassed, hurting
Sometimes it feels
Like it isn't fair
The load is aching
Does anyone see
Do they even care?
The needs unmet
The deeds undone
And they're all crying out to you
Well, it's time, it's time...

*It's time to come and sit
At the feet of Jesus
It's time to come and just be
At the feet of Jesus
It's a place of receiving
It's a place of grace
At the feet of Jesus
There's no better place*

Lay down your burdens
The world can go on without you for now
You seem so certain
That it's all up to you
But you can slow down
You're anxious about many, many things
And they're all crying out to you
Well it's time, it's time...

It's time to come and sit...
